

Glevum Associates Ranked as Fastest Growing Massachusetts Federal Contractor in Inc.'s 30th Annual Inc. 500

Company grew by 2,008%

Burlington, Mass., August 23, 2011 - Glevum Associates announced it has been recognized as an Inc. Magazine 500 winner, ranking no. 141 in the annual list of fastest growing U.S. companies.

Glevum Associates ranked as the fastest growing federal contractor and the fastest growing female-owned company on the list in Massachusetts.

The ranking measures growth in revenue for the years 2007- 2010. According to Inc., the list represents the most comprehensive look at the most important segment of the economy— America's independent entrepreneurs.

Serving the U.S. Departments of Army and State and the coalition forces in Afghanistan and Iraq, Glevum was the 16th fastest growing government contractor overall in the U.S.

Glevum provides critical socio-cultural, political, business and security information to commanders and diplomats in those two countries and others in the Middle East and Africa. Glevum analysts, based in Kabul and Baghdad and accessing hundreds of locally trained citizens, have collected and analyzed data on the attitudes, beliefs and opinions of the Afghan and Iraqi populations since the company commenced operations.

The company was founded by Lisa Hogan and Andrew Garfield in 2006.

Glevum and the winners were honored at a dinner in Washington, D.C. on Sept. 24, 2011.

The company's motto is: 'You can only understand a country if you engage directly with its people. We do that every day.'
